

“Affirmed”

The President of the International Jiyutaida Federation Grand Master

30 march 2008 year

Teyub Azizov

THE CHARTER
OF THE INTERNATIONAL JIYUTAIDO FEDERATION

BAKU - 2008

I. COMMON LAWS

The International jiyutaido federation and its variations in future called "IJF" is the mass, voluntary, independent, professional-sport, social federation, having the power on developing Jiyutaido in the world.

The International Jiyutaidofederation is the rightful subject, having all the rights of the juridical person, attitude by the International Law and making its activity according to the International Rights, observing the norms and rights of the other international federations.

The International Jiyutaidofederation represents itself in other international federations, movements, forums, establishments and develops relationships with international associates, federations, federations and clubs, has its representation at the International Jiyutaido Movement.

The International Jiyutaido Federation in a joint with other country representatives solves the problems of the population wide attraction to the physically-health activity, preparing of the stuff, formation and preparing of the combined teams.

The International Jiyutaido Federation in order to realize its charter aims can be the establishing federation of the fitting unions, foundations and other social federations and movements.

Inside the International Jiyutaido Federation can be made the league of the professional sportsmen, whose activity doesn't bother the charters of the existing international federations.

The International Jiyutaido Federation is the juridical person, has its stamp, the blanks of the established type, accounting, currency and money accounts in world banks, can have its printing federation in established order.

The International Jiyutaido Federation has its symbols as like emblem, pennant, reward signs, reward medals, decrees and wares sign as well.

The headquarters of The International Jiyutaido Federation is placed in the Baku city, Gadirbekov Street 38, The House of Techniques and Culture named after Sattarkhan.

The main aims of The International Jiyutaido Federation are:

- The activity in the rebuilding of the physically-sport movement in the world, the combination of the health social forces, joint of the creative, federation and economic potential, searching for the co-activity, including ones with the state and social structures.
- Intellectual preparation of the population in making the contact jiyutaido as a way of quality way of the physical preparing and blinking it up as a physically-sport branch of the private fighting.
- Federation jointment on wish basement of the established infrastructure of the independent clubs and centers developing and cultivating the contact jiyutaido in order to make it popular and develop it as well.
- The rehabilitation, provision in employment of the invalid sportsmen of the world wars, charity to the sportsmen, invalids and the families of the sportsmen died at the hot points of the world.
- Activity in the improvement of the judges, trainers, instructors and sport stuff preparing system, the federation of the competition process, preparing of the highly qualified sportsmen and providing their successful performance at the international arena.
- The development and increasing of the international sport relationships with national federations and relative international federations.
- The fight with unhealthy activities and solving according to its competition the problems of the ethics in the jiyutaido development area.
- Social and juridical protection of the rights and interests of the International Jiyutaido Federation members.

In order to reach the pointed aims The International Jiyutaido Federation:

- Finds studies and propagandas worthy initiatives, worthy experience aimed to develop the jiyutaido in the world.
- Studies over the methodical recommendations, the laws of the competitions, closes agreements, and creates temporary creative collectives in order to bring the sport innovations.
- In the Law established order creates publishing activity in order to realize the aims of The International Jiyutaido Federation.
- Takes part in working over the norms and demands of the one sport qualification, makes and describes the laws of the competitions, international competitions order and provides the control about their observation.
- Provides the combined teams prepare of The International Jiyutaido Federation in order to take part in official and commercial activities.
- Creates in the established order own or joint establishments, co operations, founds, rents, buys or builds the buildings and other objects, connected with the International Jiyutaido Federation.
- Provides according to the established order the finance-economy and foreign-economic activity.
- Creates in the established order production on making sports equipment, inventory, clothes, attributes, advertisement and other production and organizes its realization.
- Shows other service to the population, according to the charter aims of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

II. THE FORMATION OF THE WAYS AND FONDS

1. The finance sources of the International Federation are:

- Individual and collective entry and member payments

-Volunteer payments of the foreign state social, co operational, private founding, federations and institutions.

-Giving present, wills and other donations of the world citizens

-Incomings from the economy, social, production and other federations of the International Jiyutaido Federation, currency incomings for taking part at the international tours, for the prepare of the trainers, publishing and other commercial activity.

-Other incomings – which is not against the law.

2. The material-technical base of the International Jiyutaido Federation is formed for the incoming from the economy activity and for the volunteer giving of the sources by the juridical and physical people.

3. International Jiyutaido Federation performs its financial-economy activity at the base of freely forming of the free and covenant prices for its production and service.

4. The resources, received by the first established federations of the International Jiyutaido Federation, are used by them according to the aims of the present charter for its own needs: part of the resources is separated for providing of the centralized activities of the International Jiyutaido Federation, according to the international norms. The financial relationships between the International Jiyutaido Federation and its members are represented on the agreement base.

5. Financial and other resources are used:

-For established aims of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

-For building International Jiyutaido Federation infrastructure as country representations, clubs, sections, team centers and other formations.

-Material-technical development, creations of establishments, co operations, sport-health centers, sport base, equipment buying, uniform and attributes.

-Making chief, guardian help, charity actions.

-establishing of the special grants, primes, rewarding of the sportsmen and statesmen.

-sport measure passing.

-International co-working development

-the formation of the reserve and insurance funds; to be successful in state budgeted responsibilities, and other payments, connected with the International Jiyutaido Federation activity as well.

-The principles of International Jiyutaido Federation work and payment system are fixed by the existing situation established by the managing organs of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

According to the decision of the President of the International Jiyutaido Federation part of the finance found and other reserves can be used for the work payment.

III. MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION, THEIR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The membership at the International Jiyutaido Federation is voluntary. Collective members of the International Jiyutaido Federation can become work collectives, sport clubs, schools, taking part in the show performances, competitions and hold by the International Jiyutaido Federation and unions, federations, cooperatives, recognizing the charter of the International Jiyutaido Federation as well.

The International Jiyutaido Federation entrance question is solved by the appeal of the physically-cultural and other collectives, the amount of the year and members' payments is solved by the President of the International Jiyutaido Federation. The incomings are being sent to his account.

The membership at the International Jiyutaido Federation is individual and collective.

The individual members of the International Jiyutaido Federation can be people, living at any part of the world, recognizing the charter of the International Jiyutaido Federation, taking part at the International Jiyutaido Federation work and regularly making the members' payments, not demanding on age.

Membership in any other federations (International federation, Association) doesn't bother to his membership at the International Jiyutaido Federation.

The first branches, filial and other federations have right to take part through their representatives at the managing organs' meeting of the International Jiyutaido Federation, take part in all branches of the International Jiyutaido Federation work, by desire leave the International Jiyutaido Federation, notifying the managing organs not less than 3 months before with condition of bringing to live its responsibilities.

The collective member of the International Jiyutaido Federation must be successful in conference decisions, decisions of the other managing organs of the International Jiyutaido Federation, hold agreement responsibilities about the International Jiyutaido Federation, in time payments to the fund of International Jiyutaido Federation.

The honorees members of the International Jiyutaido Federation can be the sportsmen, trainers, judges, creation workers, social statesman and other people, having their input into the International Jiyutaido Federation affair in the country and world.

The members of the International Jiyutaido Federation must:

-Be successful in the existing charter, help its aims and questions

-Be responsible before the International Jiyutaido Federation:

-Do the payment in time

-the members of the International Jiyutaido Federation for the successful work can be rewarded materially and morally.

-the question of the personal responsibility of the International Jiyutaido Federation member for the activity not fitting existing charter are the competence of the International Jiyutaido Federation Presidium.

6. The members of the International Jiyutaido Federation have right to:

-take part in all International Jiyutaido Federation measures

-use the International Jiyutaido Federation help according to the received and concession term.

7. For disturbing the Charter, moral or material harm for the International Jiyutaido Federation members, can be made the penalties, including banishing from the International Jiyutaido Federation. The banishing problem is solved by the International Jiyutaido Federation Presidium, which can be changed or protested at the International Jiyutaido Federation Conference.

IV. THE STRUCTURE AND ORGANS OF THE INTERNATIONAL JIYUTAIDO FEDERATION

The highest managing organ of the International Jiyutaido Federation is the Presidium of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

The executive-disposal organ of the International Jiyutaido Federation, working over execution of the Presidium functions and decisions, is The Executive Committee.

The Presidium solves the following questions:

-Fixes the main branches of the International Jiyutaido Federation work

-Chooses the control-revision commission

-The decision is hold by the majority of the Presidium members' voices.

The Presidium membership is (which is elected for 5 years):

-The President of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

-Vice-President of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

-The General Secretary of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

-The International Jiyutaido Federation Commission Chairman.

-The technical Director of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

-The International Jiyutaido Federation Judges Colleague Director.

-Members of the International Jiyutaido Federation's Executive Committee.

The Presidium is gathered not less than once three months. Is the managing organ of the International Jiyutaido Federation and selects from its content the General Secretary of the International Jiyutaido Federation. The Presidium selects from its content the managing organs of the International Jiyutaido Federation.

In case of disturbing their responsibility the Presidium of the International Jiyutaido Federation can make free from the position and set another.

The President has the following rights:

- be a chairman at the meetings and conferences
- Set the Presidents of the regional federations
- With the Presidium set the way of the regional Federations' work
- Represent the International Jiyutaido Federation from his name in all federations, organs of the state power and at foreign trips as well.
- Use the financial and other valuables of the International Jiyutaido Federation:
- Close agreements
- According to his (her) powers make orders, employ or fire the workers.
- Give part of his (her) responsibilities to the Vice-President

9. The President has right to create an Executive Committee for solving the following questions, which consists of the following commissions:

- Informational propaganda
- Scientifically-methodical
- The trainers' union

-Judges

-Attestation

-Materially-technical

-Commercial

If necessary other commissions can be created.

For the technical functions from the International Jiyutaido Federation

Stuff with the Executive Committee can be created directorial and secretariat.

For the control for the Charter and Financial-Economy activity the International Jiyutaido Federation chooses the control-revision Commission for 4 years.

The Commission gives result about the year International Jiyutaido Federation's report for every-day work control the revision commission selects the chairman, secretary and the substitute.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES AND RIGHTS OF THE REGIONAL FEDERATIONS

The Presidents of the Regional federations are appointed by the Presidium of the International federations.

The President of the Regional federations appoints the Presidium of the Regional federations. The content of the Region federations Presidium is:

The Regional federation President
the Regional federation Vice-President
General Secretary
Technical Director
Judges Colleague Director
the Regional federation Finance Branch Chief

The Presidium solves the following questions:

Setting the country representative in its region

The International Jiyutaido Federation Branch Chiefs registration

prescribing its activity for the International Jiyutaido development in its region solving the financial questions in its region

Holding the regional championships, tours, show performance, gatherings, exams for the Dan/test, taking part in all The International Jiyutaido Federation measures.

The red belts from the 1st to 3rd Dan (including candidate for master of sport) are given by the Regional federations Presidium, with condition to let the International Jiyutaido Presidium knows about it.

The 4th Dan and higher (master of sport)– the exam is taken by The International Jiyutaido Federation. To let one to pass to the 4th Dan, the Regional federations Presidium must give a recommendation for the sportsman.

Creating year measures calendar.

Holding the every-year judges, instructors and technical seminar by the grand master's leadership.

Perform new proposals to The International Jiyutaido Federation, directed to the Jiyutaido development in the regions.

Regional combined teams' performance at the World Championships.

Complains of any country representative must be studied with making decisions to satisfy the interests of the country representative.

The status of all the regional federations is equal.

The Presidium is responsible for the members' payments in its region.

The Regional federations Presidium must keep in touch with the branch Chiefs.

Make convenient work conditions for the representatives in its region.

Keep in touch with center and inform about its region.

In time inform The International Jiyutaido Federation web-master to place the information about its region at The International Jiyutaido Federation web-site.

The International Jiyutaido Federation Presidium has right to reselect the Regional Federation President if he is not diligent enough.

The President of the Regional federation is prescribed from the Branch Chiefs of the same region, who has an input into the Jiyutaido development and has experience no less than 15 years.

Once a year the Regional federations Presidium must report to The International Jiyutaido Federation's President.

The activity of the regional federations is controlled by The International Jiyutaido Federation's Presidium.

Every Jiyutaido regional federation must have its own inside federation charter.

The formation of the regional Federations' charter must not break The International Jiyutaido Federation's charter and must not pass through the borders of the law.

The regional federations charter must be submitted and registered at The International Jiyutaido Federation headquarters.

VI. RESPONSIBILITIES AND RIGHTS OF THE COUNTRY REPRESENTATIVES

1. The country representatives are prescribed with the recommendation of the regional federations

2. The country representative must have the Branch Chief Certificate of the International Jiyutaidofederation
3. In time make the member's payment into the International Jiyutaido federation found
4. Each Branch Chief, who has The International Jiyutaidofederation certificate must pay 100 (one hundred) USA Dollars a year to The International Jiyutaidofederation fund. In other case the Branch Chief certificate is made invalid.
5. The invalid certificates must be returned to the centerare invalid.
6. Those who can be prescribed Branch Chiefs are:
  - Having experience in jiyutaido not less than 5 years
  - Being successful about The International JiyutaidoFederation demands
  - Healthy
  - having not less that red belt the 1st Dan
  - Having club in his country
  - having 300 students
  - the representative has right to open his own club in the country
7. In highly populated countries more than 1 Branch Chief can exist
8. Among the Branch Chiefs one is prescribed as a Chief Branch Chief, who is responsible for other Branch Chiefs' activity in his (her) representation
9. The Branch Chiefs are prescribed with the Chief Branch Chief of the country
10. Branch Chief can be prescribed who showed him (her-) self during a year from a positive site.

11. Measures year calendar at the representations are formed and approved by the Branch chiefs.
12. The Branch chief has right to take the exams on KYU (from the 10th KYU to the 1st one)
13. Red belts certificates, judges and teachers, given without center's agreement
14. The list of red belts of The International Jiyutaido Federation is shown at The International Jiyutaido Federation web-site is valid and The International Jiyutaido Federation is responsible for it.
15. The judges and instructors must have an official certificate of The International Jiyutaido Federation.
16. Keep in touch with the local Olympic Committee and Ministry of Sports.
17. Develop Jiyutaido in branches, interests, according to the laws of their countries
18. The representatives can be replaced by other representative in the following cases:
- If he (she) is not successful in The International Jiyutaido Federation demands
  - If he (she) is ill and can't go in for Jiyutaido any longer
  - By wish
  - In case of death
19. For the development of Jiyutaido in the country the Branch Chief of the country is responsible.

VII. FINISHING OF THE INTERNATIONAL JIYUTAIDO FEDERATION ACTIVITY

The International Jiyutaido Federation is abolished according to The International Jiyutaido Federation Presidium's decision for being not able to be successful in its activity.

After the abolition, the reality of The International Jiyutaido